If a symbol is given, write the name. If a name is given write the symbol. If everything is correct you will be able to read the story.

My name is MacGruff, and I am a 1) Phosphorus 2) Iodine. Yesterday, a client came into my office. 3) Helium explained to me that he was missing several pieces of 4) Au and 5) Ag jewelry. “You must 6) Fe out this problems, and soon!” he said. “I won’t rest until the jewels are found and I make the culprit 7) S. I will 8) Ba in the graveyard, I tell you.” I asked for suspects, and he gave me a name and address. “Go to number 9) Sn Grand Avenue. You will find her there, and her name is Mrs. Anderson.” I drove to Grand Avenue, but I did not mind the drive because the views 10) As in Galesburg. I arrived at the house, broke in, and searched, but 11) Nobelium jewelry was found. I waited outside until Mrs. Anderson showed up, and then confronted her about the theft. “How could you 12) Beryllium accusing me?” she asked. “I would not steal a 13) Ni.” 14) Astatine dusk, I watched her house. I saw her carrying a bag, and she put it 15) Indium her S 16) uranium V. Since I was 17) Pb to believe that she had actually stolen the jewelry, I returned later and searched her SUV. Sure enough, there was the jewelry hidden under the 18) F a bag. I took it and then waited until the morning, and watched her every move. I then contacted the police. They said they would be there soon. Before the police arrived she returned to her SUV, opened the door, and shouted, “the jewels 19) Ar !” All of the sudden the police showed up and yelled 20) Cs, and then they arrested me! “I am not the thief, Mrs. Anderson is!” I told them. A police officer had his 21) Ne my back, which was most uncomfortable. “She is the 22) Si not me”, I yelled. But, she was smart, and she also knew the police officers personally. 23) Ca? “He did it,” she said to Officer Cal, “he is the thief!” But, Officer Cal knew better and tried to arrest her, but she suddenly pulled out a test tube, from under her coat, that was filled with green liquid. “This is a poisonous 24) Ce ! Stand back or I will use it! I will dump it on Officer Cal and you will not be able to 25) Cm !” Finally the other police officer, 26) Aluminum, was able to subdue Mrs. Anderson.

“She really has a 27) Ge in her cranium!” said Officer Cal. “You are a rotten 28) Cu,” said Mrs. Anderson to the officer. That night as 29) I at McDonald’s, I reflected on the case, was happy that I was able to solve the mystery of the missing jewelry. And the client?, 30) Helium paid me quite well. I think I 31) Americium the best investigator in the world.
